Report

Swarnamoyee Jogendranath Mahavidyalaya organized a prak-saradiya celebration on 20th September 2019 to herald the autumnal festivities and upcoming Durga Puja before the college closed for Puja vacations. Room no 16 of the college was decorated beautifully by the students who performed various songs, dances and poetry recitations to celebrate the advent of the festive season. The programme, conducted by Hiya Chatterjee, Assistant Professor of English, began at 3 pm in the evening after college hours and went on for 2 hours. The Teacher-in-Charge Sanjit Debnath delivered the welcome address and the Founder Dr Anindya Kishor Bhaumik inaugurated the programme, which was followed by the performances of the students. The faculty members trained the students from all departments who put up a grand show and participated enthusiastically in the festivities. Food packets were distributed among all participants at the end of the programme.
